

Recommendation from Hikarinokuni

Our recommended picture book is the tenth series "Kusunokidanchi no Otonarisan" of the Kusunokidanchi series. The title literally means "The Neighbors in the Camphor Tree Apartment Complex." The series touches the heart of readers through the residents's kindness and consideration.

The content is as follows:

One day, Mogu, the mole manager of Kusunokidanchi, found a shoe in the backyard.

Then, from inside the shoe, he heard a small voice, "li-li-li-li-li... ♪". There live two crickets.

Residents of Kusunokidanchi came to see and care their neighbor in the shoe one after another.

However, without a word, the neighbors suddenly disappeared with the shoe.

Since then, at night the residents heard a chirp from outside the field around Kusunokidanchi.
