

Recommendation from REIJINSHA

"Art Maison" is a large-sized art book that has been published annually since 1996 to provide a comprehensive introduction to the works of Japanese artists working in Japan and abroad. It also includes commentary by art critics from around the world to assist in the appreciation of the works. For overseas fans of Japanese art, the entire text is written in both English and Japanese.